

BOEING CANADA OPERATIONS LTD. - designs, develops and fabricates advanced composite parts and sub-assemblies. Join Canada's largest aerospace composite manufacturer and help us as we strive to be the best.

We currently have an opening for a skilled, results-oriented candidate.

This role is for a self-motivated individual with a strong process-orientation who thrives on challenge and continuous improvement in a dynamic environment.

We now have an Exciting Career Opportunity for a:

Job Classification: Supply Chain Management Analyst
Job Vacancy #: 13-124
Location: Winnipeg, Manitoba
Type of employment: Full-time

Position Overview:

Applies change and planning decisions to arrive at optimal solutions. Applies Supply chain Management (SCM) methodologies to ensure coordination in the supply chain. Coordinates with company customer support representatives, contract administration, purchasing, engineering, quality assurance, traffic, warehousing, suppliers and customers. Incorporates Bills of Material (BOM) and schedules into a production plan. Coordinates part number attributes. Verifies the released engineering BOM has been correctly implemented in the material planning system. Releases and maintains orders. Documents and resolves order delinquencies. Reports schedule adherence issues. Applies developed solutions to inventory plans. Analyzes and dispositions excess and obsolete inventories. Creates schedules for products and services. Coordinates and supports process improvements. Works under general supervision.

Representative Major Tasks:

- Applies developed solutions to inventory plans. Analyzes and dispositions excess and obsolete inventories.
- Releases and maintains orders. Coordinates with suppliers and customers. Documents and resolves order delinquencies. Reports schedule adherence issues.
- Coordinates and supports process improvements.
- Applies change and planning decisions to arrive at optimal solutions. Applies SCM methodologies to ensure coordination in the supply chain. Works with processes and organizational relationships. Coordinates with company customer support representatives, contract administration, purchasing, engineering, quality assurance, traffic and warehousing.
- Incorporates Bills of Material (BOM) and schedules into a production plan. Coordinates part number attributes. Verifies the released engineering BOM has been correctly implemented in the material planning system.

Competencies:

- Must have strong oral and written communication skills, be knowledgeable in the operations of personal and on-line computers and possess the ability to work in a team environment.
- Must have knowledge of accepted business practices, ethical principles, Just-In-Time (JIT), Manufacturing Resource Planning principles (MRP).
- Proficient knowledge of (BOM) Bill of Materials and production plans

Education / Experience:

- Must have a Canadian high school diploma or recognized equivalence.
- Must have relevant post-secondary education, in Supply Chain Management or equivalent.
- Must have 2+ years of related experience in Supply Chain Management.
- Proficient knowledge of scheduling, purchase orders with a supply base is preferred.

Boeing is an equal opportunity employer committed to employing a diverse team. The company offers competitive salaries complemented by an excellent benefits program. Interested applicants may forward their resumes in complete confidence to the Human Resources Department by December 15, 2013.

Boeing Canada Operations Ltd
Winnipeg, Manitoba
Fax at 204-837-2807
Email: winnipegcareers@boeing.com

Only those candidates selected for interviews will be contacted. Resumes will be kept on file for a period of 6 months.

When applying for this position, clearly state where you have viewed this job advertisement.